

This Beautiful Woman

Hidden beneath the shores of love for many years

This beautiful woman appeared before our eyes

Her tenderness, strength, and beauty

Rode upon and conquered life's bitter tides

Her emergence bedazzles all with her intellect

Her view on life worth more than jewels

She has lived a thousand lives alone

And not one day with those she knows as fools

This beautiful woman of quiet emotions laced with sun

Reaches out before she reaches within

She listens as the sea whispers life never ends

It just renews from loves origins
